HOSMER ANGEL-----Nelson Ramsey

Sherlock Holme
the mysterious disappearance of H ulted by Mary Sutherland concerning on the day that should have been at a dance. A romantic their wedding day. Her first meeting with him had wooing had won her heart. During the courtship Joseph Windibank, her stepfather, had been away on business, and on the morning of the wedding was still away. That morning Angel surprised her by making her swear that she would never marry any other man. He travelled to the church in a second taxi which, upon arrival, was empty, and Angel had never been seen since. Mary stated she had an income of about $100 a year, which was shared by her mother and stepfather. Holmes proved that Windibank had made up as Hosmer Angel and had extracted the oath from the girl that she would never marry any other man in order to keep Mary's income in the family.
